God our creator,
who in the beginning
commanded the light to shine out of darkness:
we pray that the light of the glorious gospel of Christ
may dispel the darkness of ignorance and unbelief,
shine into the hearts of all your people,
and reveal the knowledge of your glory
 in the face of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

FIRST READING Deuteronomy 18: 15-20

Moses said: “The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own brothers. You must listen to him. For this is what you asked of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said, ‘Let us not hear the voice of the LORD our God nor see this great fire any more, or we will die.’

“The LORD said to me: ‘What they say is good. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers; I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him. If anyone does not listen to my words that the prophet speaks in my name, I myself will call him to account. But a prophet who presumes to speak in my name anything I have not commanded him to say, or a prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, must be put to death.’”

SECOND READING Mark 1: 21-28

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum, and when the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach. The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one who had authority, not as the teachers of the law. Just then a man in their synagogue who was possessed by an evil spirit cried out, “What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are – the Holy One of God!” “Be quiet!” said Jesus sternly. “Come out of him!” The evil spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a shriek.

The people were all so amazed that they asked each other, “What is this? A new teaching – and with authority! He even gives orders to evil spirits and they obey him.” News about him spread quickly over the whole region of Galilee.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Generous Lord,
in word and eucharist we have proclaimed the mystery of your love:
help us so to live out our days
that we may be signs of your wonders in the world;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen

ARE YOU A NEWCOMER OR A VISITOR?
PLEASE MAKE YOURSELF KNOWN!

At any Communion Service you are welcome to come forward to the altar, either to receive bread and wine if you are a full member of any Christian Church, or to receive a blessing. In the latter case, please keep your hands by your side to signal this intention.

Family Services are especially designed to accommodate all ages. They are at 11am (Wootton) and 11am (Claverdon) on the first Sunday of the month, and at 11am on the third Sunday in the Church Centre.

Children are always welcome at worship, and parents are encouraged to walk around, inside and out, as they wish. There are playrooms with sound relay at the back of Claverdon and Wootton Wawen churches.

Weekday Home-groups welcome new members for fellowship, study and informal prayer.
